Recession Busters!

Your Rx for health-care savings!

Tired of the high cost of medications, tests and other health-care treatments? Here are easy ways to cut health-care spending down to size!

1 Take advantage of freebies!

You can get many common medicines, tests and vaccines for free! For instance, some major supermarket pharmacies (like Meijer and Publix) offer free prescriptions for certain antibiotics and blood pressure drugs, metformin (used for diabetes) and prenatal vitamins! Free meds differ from pharmacy to pharmacy, so call around to see where your drugs might be offered. Need a checkup or vaccination? By law, most insurers must cover a range of preventative exams and vaccines regardless of whether you've met your annual deductible! Get a full list at Healthcare.gov/coverage/preventive-care-benefits.

2 Nab prescriptions for less!

Covering the cost of your Rx's, or your insurer doesn't chip in until a deductible is met? To cut costs, call your pharmacy to find if they accept coupons from prescription price-comparison websites, such as GoodRx.com and WeRX.com. Also smart: Visit the website for the manufacturer of your meds to look for coupons or rebate offers.

Scam alert!
Getting rid of empty Rx bottles? Remove the label or cover personal info with a permanent marker. This stops thieves from stealing your identity to get care using your name, then sticking you with the bill as well as altering your health-care record (such as your blood type), which can risk your life!

3 Find the lowest price for procedures!

Have a high deductible that you haven't met or need to pay out of pocket for a radiological test (such as an X-ray or MRI) or a surgical procedure? Log on to SaveOnMedical.com, then type the procedure you need and your ZIP code for a listing of all the medical centers and hospitals where you can get it in your area, along with how much each charges so you can pinpoint the lowest price immediately!

4 Spend less on emergency care!

Minor emergency? Urgent care clinics treat bone fractures, cuts and more (including urinary infections, pink eye and the flu) for a fraction of the price you'd be charged at a hospital's ER—and you're typically seen faster, too! To locate one near you, visit UrgentCareLocations.com or check the business listings in your phone book. Another option: Many health insurers offer a 24-hour nurse hotline that gives you free health advice over the phone based on your symptoms. Visit your health-care provider's website or call the number on your member card for more info.

$Ka-Ching! Shop your way to extra cash!

Get paid for shopping? It is possible, thanks to new smartphone apps that make it easy to earn extra cash while you're out and about! "Retail competition is fierce, so companies have come up with creative ways to reach customers," says Holly Reisem Hanna of TheWorkAtHomeWoman.com. "And now they're rewarding people through smartphone apps!"

✓ MYSTERY-SHOP ON THE GO!

Mobee lets you be a mystery shopper for stores near you, and there's no need to sign up beforehand—just open the app to see if there are any gigs nearby! You'll go to the store and answer a few questions in the app, then the stores use that info to improve their customer service. For every store you scout, you earn points that can be traded in for gift cards from Target, eBay and more!

✓ SCAN BARCODES IN SECONDS!

Shopkick rewards you just for entering different stores—simply start up the app once you walk through the doors to earn points, or what they call "kicks"! Rack up even more kicks by using your phone to scan barcodes around the store or inviting your friends to join the app. Kicks can then be traded for gift cards at Target, TJ Maxx and more.

✓ LET PEOPLE "SHOP" YOUR PHOTOS!

Love to share photos of your latest shopping finds on social media? Now you can earn cash for doing so! The Cosign app lets you tag items (anything from clothes to toys to food and more) in photos you post on sites like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Pinterest.

If one of your followers clicks the tagged item and buys it, you get a commission. Once you've racked up at least $40 worth of commissions, Cosign will deposit the funds in your Paypal account, or you can opt to have them send you a check or gift card.

✓ FOLLOW STORES ON FACEBOOK!

Love getting money back with rebates? Rev those rewards with bonuses from Shrink! "Besides earning cash back on rebates, you can also earn points for learning more about specific brands, following them on social media and sharing reviews," says Reisem Hanna. Points are redeemable for coupons and freebies. You'll also get $1 for completing your profile and $2 for each person you refer to the program. Once your account hits $10, you can request a payout via PayPal or Venmo!
